ATLANTA- State Sen. David Adelman (D-Decatur) has been re-appointed to key standing Senate Committees for the 2007-2008 term of the Georgia General Assembly. Sen. Adelman will again serve on the powerful Senate Judiciary Committee, which is particularly important because it deals with legislation regarding civil, criminal and constitutional law.

Sen. Adelman was also appointed to the influential Senate Rules Committee, which decides the orderly placement of legislation on the Senate calendar. In addition, Sen. Adelman was re-appointed as vice chair of the Senate Special Judiciary Committee, and he will also serve as a member of the Senate Health and Human Services Committee.

"I'm quite pleased to resume my duties on these prominent Senate committees," stated Sen. Adelman. "I look forward to reaching across the aisle to work with the Majority in a positive, productive fashion, so I can work for the betterment of the citizens of the 42nd Senate district."

Sen. Adelman was elected to the Georgia Senate in 2002. On Monday, January 8, he was officially sworn in for his third term as the state Senator representing the 42nd Senate District.
